

Letter to the Editor:

Mallorytown (Ont.)
March 28, 1970.

Dear Mr. Hollingsworth:

I received your letter sometime ago due to winter, I have not been able to get out around to find out anything. I have wrote many letters but I don't seem to find out much. I wrote to Mrs. Katherine Purvis Earle (Miss Evelyn - Ed.) of Gananoque. She wrote the book "Leeds the Lovely." I thought she might have some information. She said you had wrote to her. I wrote to Mrs. Edna Chant who writes for the Athens Reporter. I also wrote to the Editor but have not had any word.

These facts are true. This is my family.
