

Please see the early Portland, Oregon city directory excerpts a little further on. Apparently "Rosa" above is also "Harriett" interchangeably. Our information shows that Wallace Bruce Hollingsworth was born in Canada, not in New York. He was the son of Thomas and Deborah Ann (Crafts) Hollingsworth, of Leeds County, Ontario, but early emigrants from Co Wexford, Ireland. Wallace B. Hollingsworth and one Jessie B. Lockwood were married on 15 May 1890 in Los Angeles (Book 22, p. 199 LA County Recorder - HR 4:72 item 7). The age fits with the above 1900 census. But the years married (12) and the birth-date of Alina in Dec. 1889, presents a considerable problem, unless Wallace was married first had a child in Kansas, divorced or lost his 1st wife, came to California, married Miss Lockwood, she died or they divorced, and he then married Harriett-Rosa by whom he had Wallace, Jr and Gladys. Possible.
