

(8) William Wai Lee Chong, of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, sued Capt. Ed Ostrum and employee Richard Hollingsworth of the Salvation Army. Why? Lee Chong claimed Hollingsworth told Calgary police Chong threatened Ostrum and then on 9 Feb 1983 they raided Chong's apartment, and caused damage and forfeiture of his damage deposit. He is suing for $8,070 (Canadian currency, of course). Alberta Report, 25 July 1983 p. 30, sent by Cousin and correspondent Clare Hollingsworth of Edmonton.
