

(9) Cousin and Correspondent Clare Hollingsworth, Edmonton, Alta. sent us an article from The Observer for Jan. 1986, p.40. It's called Hard Times Down on the Farm. Rev. Richard Hollingsworth, minister at Underwood, Ontario, Canada, pastoral charge, is an eye witness to the bad times farmers up there are experiencing (not to mention in Iowa). In his pastoral charge between Kincardine and Port Elgin, near the shore of Lake Huron, he has seen four farmers there go bankrupt in the past two years, and four or five more forced to sell out. (The United Church Observer is the full title of the magazine - Ed.)